

World gov'ts begin devising airline assistance plans

- 19.03.2020 13:35
- ch-aviation.com / ch-aviation

© Tis Meyer / PlanePics.org 19.03.2020 - 09:39 UTC Governments across the planet have begun devising rescue packages for their countries' carriers in the wake of the severe economic impact the

- Fundstelle 1...National Council (parliament) and president of the industry association Aerosuisse, who added that talks would take place with Economy Minister Guy Parmelin in the coming days. In the UK, the transport secretary, Grant Shapps, chaired talks with the country's airlines and...
- Fundstelle 2...BRA - Braathens Regional Aviation CEO Geir Stormorken. easyJet Switzerland expects "emergency measures" from Switzerland's State Secretariat for Economic Affairs (SECO), the subsidiary of British LCC easyJet told CH Media. With around 1,000 employees on employment contracts in Germany, it...
- Fundstelle 3...National Council (parliament) and president of the industry association Aerosuisse, who added that talks would take place with Economy Minister Guy Parmelin in the coming days. In the UK, the transport secretary, Grant Shapps, chaired talks with the country's airlines and...
- Fundstelle 4...of how we can master this crisis, but also which companies, organisations, and infrastructures are relevant for our future," said Thomas Hurter, member of the National Council (parliament) and president of the industry association Aerosuisse, who added that talks would take place...